

Cancellation & Refund Policy

- Please make sure you attended the demo sessions and made up your mind before making the fees payment.
- You can choose to cancel your enrolment to the course after the demo sessions are over, and you will not be charged anything for the demo sessions.
- If you choose to continue with the course after the demo sessions are over you need to make a part or full payment of the course fees.
- You can also choose to cancel your enrolment anytime during the course, however the fees that you paid in part or full to CloudAge is non-refundable in any condition.
- If you paid the fees part or full for a batch & were unable to continue with that batch due to some situation and later you decide to join a new batch to continue with the course, in this situation you only need to pay the difference in fees
- That is total fees as per the new batch fees structure minus what you already paid in the old batch.
- Course fees once collected by CloudAge are non-refundable in any condition.
- For any queries you can write a mail to info@cloudage.co.in or call on 976 406 3368.
